

8beat .

Musical notation for an 8-beat exercise. The notation is written on a five-line staff. The first four beats consist of a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes with 'x' marks above them, indicating a specific articulation. The fifth and sixth beats feature a star symbol (>*) above the first note, indicating an accent. The seventh and eighth beats continue the eighth-note pattern. The notation is presented on a set of five-line staves.

A set of five-line musical staves, currently blank.

A digital drum machine interface showing a grid of notes for beats 25 through 31. The interface includes a 'Drums' label and a vertical playhead. The grid displays various colored notes (yellow, green, blue, red) representing different drum sounds across multiple tracks.

A set of five-line musical staves, currently blank.